In the event said Board, or its designated committee, fails to approve or disapprove such design and location within thirty (30) days after said plans and specifications have been submitted to it, approval will not be required and this Article will be deemed to have been fully complied with. Section 3. Nuisance. No noxious or offensive activity shall be conducted upon any Lot nor shall anything be done thereon which may be or may become an annoyance or nuisance to the neighborhood. This shall include activities which create disturbing noise levels, odors, and/or traffic, taking into consideration the time of day or night. No trash, rubbish, stored materials, wrecked or inoperable vehicles or similar unsightly items shall be allowed to remain on any Lot outside an enclosed structure; provided, the foregoing shall not be construed to prohibit temporary deposits of trash, rubbish and other such debris for pick up by governmental and other similar garbage and trash removal service units. In the event any Owner fails or refuses to keep his Lot free from unsightly objects, weeds or underbrush in a manner satisfactory to a majority of the Board of Directors of CHPOA, CHPOA may, through its agent or representative, five (5) days after posting a notice on such Lot or mailing a notice to the Owner thereof at his property requesting the Owner to comply with the requirements of this Section, enter and remove any and all unsightly objects, debris or other vegetation at Owner's expense. Owner, by acquiring any Lot subject to this Declaration, agrees to pay such costs incurred by CHPOA in the enforcement of this Section promptly upon demand. Section 7. Use of Common Areas. No planting or gardening shall be done upon any Common Area unless authorized or permitted by the Board of Directors of CHPOA. No signs other than those approved by the Board of Directors shall be placed on Common Areas. No unauthorized motorized vehicles will be allowed on the Common Areas. Damage caused by any vehicles or vandalism to real or personal property may be subject to fines, repair costs and civil penalties. Rules and regulations of the use and times of the Common Area park will be posted. Violation of these rules may result in fines and/or civil penalties.

Section 8. Maintenance. All Lots, together with the exterior or all improvements thereon, shall be maintained in a neat, attractive, and orderly condition by their respective Owners, including, but not limited to, painting, repairing, replacing and caring for roofs, gutters, downspouts, exterior building surfaces, trees, shrubs, grass, walks or other exterior improvements. In the event an Owner shall fail to maintain his respective Lot and the improvements thereon in a manner satisfactory to the Board of Directors of CHPOA, CHPOA may, through its agent or representative, after approval by two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board, have the right to levy fine(s) and/or enter upon said Lot and repair, maintain and restore the Lot and the exterior of the buildings and other improvements thereon. The cost of such fines and/or exterior maintenance shall be added to and become part of the assessment to which such Lot is subject. The Owner shall be personally liable to CHPOA for the fine and/or cost of such maintenance. The fines and/or cost, until paid, shall be a permanent charge and lien upon such Lot, enforceable to the same extent and collectible as provided for in ARTICLE V of this Declaration. Any entry as provided herein shall not be a trespass, nor shall CHPOA be liable for doing anything reasonably necessary or appropriate in connection with carrying out these provisions, provided such entry shall be at reasonable hours on any day except Saturday or Sunday so as not to interfere with the right of quiet enjoyment of the individual Lot Owner.

Section 9. Preservation of Wooded Areas. No healthy trees in excess of eight (8) inches in diameter shall be removed or destroyed without approval of the Board of Directors or its designated committee. The Owner of each Lot shall be responsible for the prompt removal of any diseased or dead trees. The stumps of any tree removed shall also be removed or cut to ground level.

Section 10. Holiday-Specific Decorations. Exterior holiday-specific decorations must comply with standards set by the CHPOA Architectural Guidelines.

Section 11. Vehicles and Trailers. No motorized vehicles or trailers may be parked on any Lot subject to these declarations, other than those parked on a parking pad or driveway whose plans and application have been approved by the CHPOA Architectural Committee or the CHPOA Board of Directors as described under Article VI, Section 1. Under no circumstances may trailers be parked in any area of the property which is between the street and a straight line extending across the street-facing side of the house erected on said Lot unless a variance to this restriction is requested by the property owner and approved by the CHPOA Board of Directors.

Article VII Easements

Easements for installation and maintenance of utilities and drainage facilities are reserved in favor of CHPOA, and the Town of Hillsborough, as shown on the plat recorded. Within these easements no structure, planting or other material shall be placed or permitted to remain which may interfere with the installation and maintenance of utilities, or which may change the direction of flow of drainage channels in the easements, or which may obstruct or retard the flow of water through drainage channels in the easements. There is hereby reserved, without further assent or permit into the extent allowed by law, a general easement to all firemen, ambulance personnel, policemen and those employed or contracted by CHPOA and all similar persons to enter upon the properties or any portion thereof which is now or hereafter made subject to this Declaration in the performance of their respective duties.

CHPOA reserves the right to relocate easements for installation and maintenance of utilities and drainage facilities by so indicating on subsequent plats the new location of such easement over and across portions of said property owned by CHPOA, and to extinguish the easements reserved across the old location by recordation of a declaration of withdrawal thereof in the Orange County Registry; provided however, that CHPOA may not withdraw, terminate, or relocate any easements in such a manner as would impair the vested rights of any lot owner. CHPOA also reserves an easement across a strip of land thirty (30) feet in width running along and on the north side of the southern boundary and the west side of the eastern boundary of Lot 1, section I, Cornwallis Hills for landscaping and the installation and maintenance of signs identifying the development to the general public.

Article VIII Binding Nature of Declaration

The covenants, conditions and restrictions contained in this Declaration, both negative and affirmative, and including but not limited to the covenants to pay dues and assessments, shall be construed to be covenants running with the land covered by this Declaration. Each lot and the Owner of each Lot covered hereby, or any other person or legal entity claiming an interest in any Lot, and his heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns, shall be subject to and bound by all of such covenants, conditions and restrictions, regardless of when, in what manner, or from whom any Lot is acquired.

In the event any Owner of a Lot covered by this Declaration sells his Lot, and does not obtain from the purchaser thereof a specific written assumption of the covenants, conditions and restrictions of this Declaration, which assumption must be filed with CHPOA, then such selling Owner shall be liable, jointly and severally, with his purchaser and all other successors in title, for performance thereafter of all such covenants, conditions and restrictions, including, but not limited to, the covenants to pay dues and assessments, until an express assumption is obtained from the Owner of that Lot and is filed with CHPOA.

Article IX General Provisions

Section 1. Enforcement. CHPOA, or any Owner, shall have the right to enforce, by any proceeding at law or in equity, all restrictions, conditions, covenants, reservations, liens and charges now or hereafter imposed by the provisions of this Declaration. Failure by CHPOA or by any Owner to enforce any covenant or restriction herein contained shall in no event be deemed a waiver of the right to do so thereafter.

Section 2. Severability. Invalidation of any one of these covenants or restrictions by judgment or court order shall in no way affect any other provisions which shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 3. Duration and Amendment. The covenants and restrictions of this Declaration shall run with and bind the land, from the date of recordation of this Amended Declaration of Covenants, Conditions and Restrictions for Cornwallis Hills. This Declaration may be amended provided that no amendment shall alter any obligation to pay ad valorem taxes or assessments for public improvements, as herein provided, or affect any lien for the payment thereof established herein. No amendment shall be effective unless all of the following conditions are met: (i) the matter is put forth to the membership for a vote in accordance with Article IV, Section, and (ii) seventy-five percent (75%) of the membership votes in favor of the amendment, and (iii) the vote is documented in the form of an instrument signed by the members voting in favor, and (iv) the signed instrument has been recorded.

Section 4. Headings. Headings are inserted only for convenience and are in no way to be construed as defining, limiting, extending or otherwise modifying or adding to the particular paragraphs to which they refer.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, CHPOA has caused this Declaration to be duly executed the day and year first above written.
